

Face Tomorrow, Feel Free

Feel free to clear your thoughts with me.
Tell me that you're able to fulfill your desire again.
Feel free to lose your mind with me.
Somehow I know we can make it, if we let go of ourselves.

Cure this sickness !
Clear this weakness !
So that we can feel like we should, to make sure you can focus.
Now let your heart speak....
Loud... let your mind freak.

Feel free to kill some time with me.
Wouldn't you be able to please your thrill all by yourself?

Kill this weakness.
Break this sequence.
So that we can feel like we should, to make sure we can focus.
Now let your heart speak....
Loud... let your mind freak out.

We melt down the structure by trying to capture the moment we think that will give us some comfort.
We're giving up easy. Too scared of receiving the message that tells us "the future will change us";

Face your weakness.

Loud... let your mind freak out for good.
I'm sick of this vibe.
Let's end this book the way we should.
