Face Tomorrow, My World Within

I'm lost without. I'm lost within. I disconnect. I'm going in.

A place where life makes sense to me. A world where I would rather be.

I'm lost, I'm lost. I've lost it too. I'm lost I'm lost. I'm lost like you.

I'm lost without my world within. A place were I am wandering.

I feel the need, to disengage, to loose myself, to hide my face.

I'm lost without an inch of fear. I won't come out. I like it here.

I'm lost without my world within. A place where I am wandering. I'm lost without my world within. A place where I am wandering.

Now please don't stop creating this.

I'm ok I like it here. This is what I long for. This is where I meet myself.

I'm lost without my world within. A place where I am wandering.
