

Face Tomorrow, Past

break every moment we had smile back at old needs throw all the misery out let's plant some new seeds

it's over, just leave it alone
and lean back
give it a rest
just let it pass
'cause it is so hard to forget the past, the past

it is hard to understand but it tells me that there is nothing to regret

hear me once more
I can't fix this
and I won't wait
'till I lose myself
hear me once more
I can't fix this
and I won't wait
'till I lose myself
'till I lose myself

and lean back
give it a rest
just let it pass

caught by a dazzling sound leads me towards you making me realise that I don't want to

it's over, just leave it alone
and lean back
give it a rest
just let it pass
hear me once more
I can't fix this
and I won't wait
'till I lose myself
hear me once more
I can't fix this
and I won't wait
