

Face Tomorrow, Saved

a choice is made
a life is saved
and no one really noticed the chance he had
but never used
'cause he did not focus is this what you want now is this what I get now I just wanted you

to know my name

the words she said
my mind is fed
a feeling of relief
the choice she made
the gift she trade
but will she ever breathe

the time has come to scream out loud
and read between the lines I never thought
this feeling would
shiver down my spine
