

Faces, Silicone Grown

wait a minute honey I dont think the joke's so too funny no I stayed up all night checking out the doctor's guide
wait a minute honey
stop pretending you're a bunny well I might've guessed you been to see a specialist I remember you said that we gotta keep a breast of time but obviously you don't know where to draw the line, well don't try to tell me it's a-what you been eating since when have you been forty-four around get on with the song, yeah dig this, at the Moulin Rouge tell you baby we could knock'em dead just sign right here all I need is ten per cent well, now you make me feel like a pimp in the White House for a senator's daughter youre stealing all the headline news all the headline news oh shake me, shake me, shake me up all night long we all need a laugh and I guess you're just the one well you got more front than Haig Museum oh home grown silicone you really got the best of me
you really got the best of me
