

Faction, Skate Harassment

There's disobedience in the streets
In all of suburbia's dreams
Kids are tired of the same old things
Drive in movies and football games
Time to have some real fun, time to put boredom under the gun
Kids on four wheels they don't care
They just wonder why the laws aren't fair
Why is it they won't admit, at least we don't stay home and sit skate harassment complicity, bitchy neighbors and police People gawk, you're immature
"what are you doing, get out of here"
80 questions everyday, mass harassment is assured
We're not hurting anyone, we just want to have all the fun.
