

Faction, Spineless Majority

You're all alone and by yourself
Pretty much nothing to do
The others are so many it's f**kin' scary
The things that they could do to you
Spineless Majority
They feed on mtv, shaping paths of thought
About the third world war and things they should have bought Smart ass people they're all the same
You're slightly different so today is the day
Perfect mamma's boys in their perfect daddy's cars
Twenty bucks a ticket to see rock stars
You're a minority 'cause you use your head
The spineless majority wants you dead
They'll kick your teeth in for praise and glory but when it's one on one it's a whole different story
The spineless majority's for a spineless world
Spineless majority, join for the thrill.
