

Factory 81, Nanu

I follow the sundown,
until it hits me.
Never bring it back now.
Forever want you to see.
No, we've been through so fine.
Just to cover a lie.
Different friend I'm alive.
No, you will sit there and try,
to pretend it's alright.
When they fuck with your life, yeah.
Watch your back don't do the things that you won't wanna see.
You're wacked yourself cause you're living out your pocket, dream.
Not your face as you wanna take away again.
Get your back. Living out your pocket dream.
Catch yourself as you look again.
The offers slipping in the fast lane.
Hit yourself as you hit the wall.
It's that time to fall.
Hit your back and you'll be what you wanna see.
You're wacked yourself cause you're living out your pocket, dream.
Hit your back cause you wanna take away again.
Hit yourself, living out your pocket dream.
What's up now you fucking hoe?
I am a wanna-be.
Let your sleep and the dreams that are never good,
do watch yourself but i wanna make someone a part.
Off the box as you wanna take away again.
Watch yourself, getting off your pocket dream.
Hit yourself as you lose can go (control?).
You were sitting in the fast lane.
Hit your back as you hit the wall.
Now it's that time to fall.
Not yourself cause you'll be what you wanna see.
You are the one who's been living out this pocket dream.
Hit yourself as you wanna take away again.
Watch your back, living out your pocket dream.
|
Yeah I fight, and i'm blacked again.
Nothings what it seems.
The way you work, the way i listen, you are present.
And I'm mellow when i'm fine,
never meant i never been to all.
You wouldn't want your sole.
You only wanna know the things that i say
And you're the one in front of me.
Now, do hit me, i lie.
Now, you hit me, i lie.
Oh yeah
Yeah,
I,
Yeah,
I.
I don't hear or know what you say.
All through the year and now i melt down.
I watched it all as it rinsed away.
I love the things that i've called you.
I fake it all and now i wash again.
I have the pains again in side me.
I paint it all as i strip away
all of the things that are riling.
And I forgive you for all the lies.
Enter my face and see through me.
And all the pain that i tucked away.

The things that i thought defy me.
And I will fear as I will see,
and i will fear with you once again.
I thank myself and live forever, and ever.
No, thought your gonna bite right through another friend.
Are the one who's been living with some (redneck).
I'm suprised that you wanna take away again.
Hit your back, living out your pocket, dream.
No, we've been through so fine.
Just to cover a lie.
Different friend i'm alive.
Yeah.
