

Fad Gadget, Speak To Me

You say I'm living a lie
Well that's alright
I don't mind, because
I've got my head in the sky
I'm as high as a kite
No tears in my eyes

So let's speak
Speak 'til we're weak
This freedom of speech
It's a figure of speech
Speak to me

You've got your feet on the ground
You're so down-to-earth
So profound, but now
I think I'm holding you down
Behind every great man
A woman can drown

Oh my heart is full of sorrow
There might not be a tomorrow
Things are said in self defence
Hang your dirty linen on the barbed wire fence

You say I'm living a lie
Well that's alright
I don't mind, because
I've got my head in the sky
I'm as high as a kite
No tears in my eyes

So let's speak
Speak to me
Speak to me
