

Faded Grey, Army Of Kids

We may be young, but we're not naive.
We won't give in to your adult supremacy.
Don't you think we'll do what you say when we've seen the mistakes you've made?
We're young, but we're not dumb.
We're smarter than you think.
Stop and think! An army of kids,
not here to change your mind,
but if you look you may find...
An army of kids. We've found a better way.
You can have your maturity.
