

Faded Grey, Faded Grey

How did that feeling fade?
It was only yesterday
that I stood by your side.
Now I'm left asking why?
How did that feeling die?
I think of you and I burn inside.
All those feelings that we shared,
this just isn't fair.
Did you ever care?
Were you ever there?
Now that you're gone,
I'm forced to move on.
But without you,
I'm not really sure what to do.
All those lies that we spoke,
every promise that we broke.
I've got nowhere to turn.
I guess I've got a lot to learn.
Nothing lasts forever.
That was yesterday.
Your memory is faded grey.
That was yesterday.
This pain won't remain.
