

Faderhead, Acquire The Fire

Let me acquire the fire
Break every rule until I
Become a monster
Let me acquire the fire
I'll break away until I
Become a monster
All your talk of a kingdom above
Choices full of greed
Painting images of brotherly love
Can you help me fuck young boys for free?
Nothing left that's sacred in your mind
Nothing left for me
Everything in life returns in time
Can you help me fuck young boys for free?
Let me acquire the fire
Break every rule until I
Become a monster
Let me acquire the fire
I'll break away until I
Become a monster
Everybody in your family has
Silent eyes that scream
Everyday in life is just a test
Can you help me fuck young minds for free?
All your talk of a kingdom above
Choice was meant for me
Painting images of family love
Can you help me fuck young minds for free??
Let me acquire the fire
Break every rule until I
Become a monster
Let me acquire the fire
I'll break away until I
Become a monster
