

Faderhead, Girly Show

Are you feeling pretty? (Universally adored!)
Keep the city busy (and demanding your reward)
Are you feeling awesome? (Everybody loves a queen!)
See your state - it blossoms (high and low and in between)
High and low and in between
Your thighs

I feel - I know
I cannot stand all your talk
Your little girly show
Been there - but I've grown
I cannot stand what you do
Your little girly show

Are you down and broken? (Life's demands are just too much!)
This is softly spoken (to portray a human touch)
Are you lost and lonely? (And in need of one who dreams?)
Just to steal the image (mind and heart and in between)
Mind and heart and in between

Your thighs

(What's with this bitch?)

I raise the stakes as you're breaking
A legend now in the making
When all your muscles are aching - I got the fortitude
You seem to get by just faking
But you can't stand the duration
What do you think? I'm a spaceman?
You just can't match my moves!
