

Failure, Count My Eyes

I made my head split open
And everyone watched
I twisted it off
And everyone gasped
I lost my sight
And everyone laughed
Then I replaced my head
And I couldn't see

A hole was left in my head
Between my eyes
All dark and red
It wasn't a new eye
I was just dead
I was just dead

Break me off a piece of life's juicy pie
Cause you don't have to lift your eyes
Just look at the way I look at the sky
Look at me
Count my eyes
Count my eyes
