

Failure, Muffled Snaps

muffled snaps and louder cracks sound of blows knocks you down flesh recoils and starts to swell hear the rushing of the blood carve the rage into you I've absorbed the pain

it comes so easy
from my arm to your face

big enough to speak again finds a place that's not been numbed sinks with lightness once again feel the blankness from above

carve the rage into you

from my arm to your face
