

Failure, Undone

Someone said they'd like to set you up They're gonna feed on you just sleep now Should've know they'd try and make you cry They're gonna have fun
now don't fight it

Let me come undone in
your house
I need to kill some time tonite
Let me come undone in
your mouth
I need to know that your
the same

Could've guessed you were the only one They wanted to laugh at believe them
No surprise you let it get to you
It was always there can't hide it

Your face is easy to hate Looking helpless
and sincere Curls up in self-sickness Lick your wounds and dream of home

let me come undone in
your house
Let me come undone
and kill some time Let me come undone in
your mouth
Let me come undone
and feel the same
