

Failure, Untitled

This is your face
It's like a rainbow
This your brain
It's like a light rain
This is your eyes
Like flashlights
This is your mind
The damn thing's always growing

But the fear of giving in
Makes me want to scream-(cry/crime?)

Gotta think straight
I'm gonna keep my promises
I can stay sane
There'll be no need for changes
Don't have to be afraid
Of my new (?)

This is OK and I'm alright
I'm just feeling a little scared

But the fear of giving in
Makes me want to give in

You don't have to be afraid
