

Fair Haven, Not Even Close

The blame the one, he who sits silent The blame the one, he who does nothing at all there is no one in the world not criticized i wonder why, take look around we are not even close, not even close Not even close to overload
Who are the ones talking about doomsday
Who are the ones who say we will end it all
They are the ones who don't want another day
I wonder why, take a look around
