

Fairweather, Soundtrack To The Ride

Vapour trail is soundtrack to the ride
It's late now but somehow we don't mind
Living smiles or laughing eyes
Through my window sun begins to shine
Welcome to a summer's fun
Endless mornings full of the brightest light
And I could keep this moment close enough to never let it go
Invite this one last hour to stay as long as we hold on
The world's outside, its just you and me tonight,
It's everything I have to give
They might be right but I feel its wasting time
To choose not to live
