

Fairweather, Who Brings A Knife To A Gunfight?

Hey don't give up on all these days.
Our words and yours they don't decay.
Hold on it's almost over.
We'll take this verse and make it everything.
Hold on for darker days.
If we go down we go down fighting.
If we go down it's both guns blazing.
Can't you see we're falling on everything that we need?
Take a breath for what's inside.
Take a breath because it's ours.
Here's to dark days.
