

Faith Evans, Burnin Up (Extended Remix)

(feat. Freeway, Missy Elliott, P. Diddy)

[Intro: P.Diddy]

As we proceed (Yeah yeah yeah yeah) to give you what you need
(Yeah yeah yeah yeah) Yeah, it's gettin hot in here!
(Yeah yeah yeah yeah) Oh! It's gettin hot in here! Missy!

[Verse 1: Missy Elliott (P.Diddy)]

(Wooo hoooo!) Dag it's hot (I like this)
Must have been Missy comin up in the spot
How many times I'm a tell you to stop
If me and Faith on the track artist don't wanna drop
Now c-c-come on move your feet
Let's slide to the flo' when ya hear this beat
Let's shake it like a pro (oh) gimme what you got
This is gonna blow when you play it in your box

[Faith Evans]

Sometimes you can be in love and having fun
And still not know what's goin on (No)
Or on the other hand you separate, thinkin that the feelin's gone
Feels like forever when were together, I knew that we are destiny
So here's the last chance for the last dance
For us to bring back the dream

[Chorus 1: Faith Evans]

So baby come and rescue me (I'm burnin up!)
I got somethin' for you to see (I'm burnin up!)
Baby come and take me there (I'm burnin up!)
Trust me you should (Hurry up!) Baby I'm just (burnin up! burnin up!)

[Verse 2: Missy (P.Diddy)]

(It's gettin hot in here!!!)
I'm burnin up like a match (Missy: Match) layin on my back (Missy: Back)
Thirty eight deezy a that's just baby fat
Why you so upset? Cause you want some putty cat
You bought no jimmy hat no way don't gimme that
Yeah I want you back, so can I have you back
Those size twelve feet explains what's in your slacks
I know this for a fact, I love the way you mack
Can you rescue me? Ay yo Faith where you at?

Don't care how it starts

Just when I'm floatin the pound

Into the crib, we can just dance, dance, dance

All night in the dark

How you want me to bite that? Ma I'll be right back

When the jokin stops, Faith, Just Blaze and Free

Bad Boy and the Roc

Things you do got my heart startin a fire

Burning up! My heart is like burnin up!

Things you do got my heart startin a fire

Burning up! My heart is like burnin up!

Things you do got my heart startin a fire
