

Faith Evans, Ever Wonder

(feat. Mario Winans)

[Mario Winans]

Baby, if I just been a little different lately.
But I wanna understand you so much more.
Open the door. anything just tell me.
Open up and say it baby.

[Faith Evans]

Lately, I've been tryin to keep my distance crazy.
It's not what I expected at first
But now I undersatnad you gotta be a man.
And now it so clear to me so you can keep it real with me.

[Chorus]

[Mario] You ever wondered what makes a woman cry
[Faith] you ever wondered why sometimes you make me cry
[Mario] you ever wondered what makes a woman smile
[Faith] its just the little things, you do to make me smile

[Mario]

Maybe, we jumped into this situation to early
But it's something that our bodies can't ignore
Now you want more but I think I'm ready
Just open up and say it baby

[Faith]

Baby,not to mention that you got me feelin' crazy
Everytime you walk through my door
My emotions won't let me say no
And now I'm wonderin' if after this you'll want me more

[Chorus 1x]

[Faith]

You see I'm feelin' you
You know I'm wantin' to
Put all my trust in you
'cause aint no guarantee

[Mario]

And I'm so glad you do
I feel the same way too
All we gotta do is keep communicating

[Chorus 2x]
