

Faithbomb, The Devil And Me a little man who throws conscience to the wind he always takes me back to where I started from again he says that you're worth it put God on a shelf you've got what it takes deny your maker deny yourself who's gonna win this thing the devil or me a day to day battle between the devil and me step off twenty paces and fire devil and me

a classic bout it seems I'm always on the ropes rob me of my sanity my dignity all of my hope the way to heaven is what's to be found I've got news for you satan I'll be back for another round
