

Faker, This Heart Attack

Im going away to be alone, Im coming back with answers
Dont try to call my telephone, Its disconnected
And I dont know where Im going, But can you guide me?
If I find love where Im going, Will it survive me?
Cause in your own space, youre disconnected
And in your own mind, Youre not affected
And in your own time, Youre still attracted
But in your own life

This Heart Attack
Ive gotta get away not coming back
I want some downtime
So call me when you can and Ill be fine

Ive found the time to be alone, I dont know what to ask you
Im waiting by the telephone, And youre still barking
My heart stops it isnt - going could you revive me
I think Im lost without knowing, So come and find me
Cause in the same space, Were disconnected
And in your own mind, Youre not attracted
But in your own life, overreacted
And in your own time

This Heart Attack
I think Ill go away not coming back
Im off the line
So call me when you can some other time
This Heart Attack
Ive gotta get away not coming back
I want some downtime
So call me when you can and Ill be fine

Sometimes if we dont go
Sometimes you dont know
You dont go, I dont go
I dont go, You dont go

Ive got your back
But you dont got mine
This Heart Attack
Then Im feeling fine

This Heart Attack
Ive gotta get away Im not coming back
Im 'bout to flatline
So call me when you can some other time
This Heart Attack
Ive gotta get away not coming back
I want some downtime
So call me when you can and Ill be fine

Im going away to be alone
I'm going away to be alone
I'm going away to be alone
I'm going away to be alone
