

Faktion, September

How did we get here?
Dirty words and anger
Is it about my fears?
My stomach turns and I exhale
There goes everything
I finally said it this time
I hope it burns you
Like I envisioned in my mind

Chorus:
It's like this I see you crying
You're ruined from throwing me away
Our picture is torn into
And it's you who's rearranged
You're falling to pieces
And you'll always remember my name
You know it's your fault
So say it again, say my name

Should I stay here?
Trapped inside this vision
I'm forced to overthrow the pain
By poisoning my mind
There goes everything
I finally said it this time
I hope it burns you
Like I envisioned in my mind

Repeat Chorus

Now it's too late for any chance to bring it back
Too much has changed, now, to make up what we lack
By the time I learn to forgive and forget
You won't remember my name

Repeat Chorus
