

Fall Out Boy, Austin, We Have A Problem

We're pretty boys
For secret girls
Who never stood a chance in the world
I'm not ready for sincerity
I'd tell any lie to keep you listening

I gave you pretentious, I gave you indifference
But you only wanted undressed and defenseless
With all your cheap words
About hearts and accidents

Sincerity's in
So make it sound like you mean it
Hold back your breath
In a year no one will even care

Sincerity's in
So make it sound like you mean it
Hold back your breath
In a year

Everyone loves an underdog
That's why you're all singing along

With all your cheap words
Who are you kidding?
We're pretty boys
For secret girls
Who are you kidding?

Sincerity's in
So make it sound like you mean it
Hold back your breath
In a year no one will even care

Sincerity's in
So make it sound like you mean it
Hold back your breath
In a year

(Hey! Everyone loves an underdog that's why you're all singing along)
(Hey! Everyone loves an underdog that's why you're all singing along)

When the hook sets in
And this all ends
I'll wish it never began
Oh I will die without all the attention

When the hook sets in
And this all ends
I'll wish it never began
Oh I will die without all the attention

Sincerity's in
So make it sound like you mean it
Hold back your breath
In a year no one will even care

Sincerity's in
So make it sound like you mean it
In a year.
