Fall Out Boy, My Heart Is The Worst Kind Of Wea

Spent most of last night dragging this lake For the corpses of all my past mistakes Sell me out, the jokes on you We are salt and you are the wound

Empty another bottle and let me tear you to pieces
This is me wishing you into the worst situations
I'm the kind of kid that can't let anything go
So you wouldn't know a good thing if it came up and slit your throat

Your remorse hasn't fallen on deaf ears, rather ones that just don't care Because I know that you're in between arms somewhere Next to heartbeats where you shouldn't dare sleep Now I'll teach you a lesson for keeping secrets from me

Take your taste back, peel back your skin And try to forget how it feels inside You should try saying no once in a while Oh, once in while

Take your taste back, peel back your skin And try to forget how it feels inside You should try saying no once in a while Oh, once in while

And did you hear the news?
I could dissect you and gut you on this stage
Not as eloquent as I may have imagined
But it will get the job done, you're done

Every line is plotted and designed To leave you standing on your bedroom window's ledge And everyone else that it hits, that it gets to Is nothing more than collateral damage

Take your taste back, peel back your skin And try to forget how it feels inside You should try saying no once in a while Oh, once in while

Take your taste back, peel back your skin And try to forget how it feels inside You should try saying no once in a while Oh, once in while.
