Fallacy, Look To The Dark

(J. Hall)
Are you still alive inside?
Can you tell one more time?
Tell me where to run
Tell me where to hide
I'll see you where you go
I'll see you once again
Try to not be slow
For one more deadly sin
Look outside
The flames are burning
Search inside
The times are turning
Look to the dark
Your soul is running from you!
I can't wait to find
More people of my kind
They have to come quick
Before we all get sick
The lights are out
And no one can see
All that is wrong
With everything around me
(Chorus)
