Fallacy, Self-Destruction

(J. Hall/K. Holz)
Self-destruction enters the sky
All beings are going to die
Pandemonium carries out
Hurry up, scream and shout
Self-destruction is on its way
Don't interfere or you will pay
Hold out for one more day
Or you might end up far away
In the end it is black and grey
There's no one at the end of the day
All you must do is pray
For Self-destruction that is far away
(Chorus)
