

Falling Cycle, Brush With Pandora

Your words left a dagger in my heart
And left a bitter melody
To that you have seen all that I am
You have no reason
I never told you how I felt
Because I, I never felt at all
I walked away and didn't say goodbye
Because I, I never spoke at all
You said there would be another day
But your never going to change
To watch you go and turn your back on me my trust in you is gone
I want to see your face again
So I can say goodbye
And as for what you have to say
Keep it to yourself
I saw the stars in your eyes
I show you everything in me
But now I turned around and walked away
So I say goodbye
I never told you how I felt
Because I, I never felt at all
I walked away and didn't say goodbye
Because I, I never felt at all
