

Falling Cycle, Repair

I've tried to fly on broken wings for too long on my own
And now I'm living on second chances ashamed of all I am I'll give you everything
please take everything from me
With my hands in the air
I bring it all back to you
With every word and every tear
I bring it all back to you
I can't stand up and change my self with every breath I take I fall back down Can you fix me
With my hands in the air
I bring it all back to you
With every word and every tear
I bring it all back to you
So many promises I've made and let them slip away
This time I'm giving you all I have don't let me slip away
In this moment I come to you
I come to you walk with you
