

Falling For Alba, Car Wreck

Give me something to live for,
I'm slowly fading out.
I never thought it would be so complicated.
I never thought I'd fall.
Yeah.

We sink so deep sometimes, yeah.
And I'll close my eyes, put my hands to my side
and push the pedal to the floor.
Going to scream tonight, put my head down and cry.
I'm giving up this time.

Is it over yet and have I left this life?
I never said goodbye.
And I'll close my eyes, put my hands to my side
and push the pedal to the floor.
I screamed, I cried.

And I'll close my eyes tonight, tonight.
So sorry I never said goodbye, goodbye.
