

Falling In Reverse, Alone

Oh! This is the end of every thing that I've known
Oh! This is the end of every thing that I've known

So come on!

White boy on the beat rocking Gucci sneaks
All I do is win, Charlie Sheen
Started out in '06 and revived the scene
So many motherfuckers wanna be like me

Came from the lowest of the lows, rose to top with a vision
My haters talking shit while washing dishes for a living
Fucking bitches I'm a business, I'll be kissing on your mrs.
What you spend in 15 months is What I spend in 15 minutes

Oh! Don't give a fuck about you you're feeling broken motherfuckers and there's nothing you can do You're a bitch! You're a bitch! Don't make me pull the plug

Oh, this is the end of every thing that I've known
No way of knowing if I'll ever be home
I don't ever wanna be alone, alone
Oh, and if I try to make it out of this town
No way of knowing If I'll ever be found
I don't ever want to be alone, alone

I've got a lot of people talking nothing but chatter, why'd you switch your style up but now that I don't matter Man I've been in rap since I was shitting in pampers climbing the ladder to the top and now I'm shitting on rappers

All I do is work, straight up hustle and grind
So many people mad at me for crossing the line
I find it kinda funny the shit you say in your tweets but when we're face to face you ain't got nothing to say to me

So fuck you too!
You better take a step back before I call up the crew
You talk a lot of shit but you spread nothing but lies
You keep running your mouth, you better open your eyes

Oh, this is the end of every thing that I've known
No way of knowing if I'll ever be home
I don't ever wanna be alone, alone
Oh, and if I try to make it out of this town
No way of knowing If I'll ever be found
I don't ever want to be alone, alone

I'm on that rack
Fly like a jet
Switching my lanes like I'm racing a vette
I'm on that next
Girl of sex
No doubt I'm on top of the world
Break your neck
Break your neck!

Yo!
So break your motherfucking neck!

I'm on that rack
Fly like a jet
Switching my lanes like I'm racing a vette

I'm on that next
Girl of sex
No doubt I'm on top of the world
Break your neck
I'm on that next
Girl of sex
No doubt I'm on top of the world
So break your motherfucking neck!

Oh, this is the end of every thing that I've known
No way of knowing if I'll ever be home
I don't ever wanna be alone, alone
Oh, and if I try to make it out of this town
No way of knowing If I'll ever be found
I don't ever want to be alone, alone

Oh, this is the end of every thing that I've known
(I'm on that wreck, fly like a jet)
No way of knowing if I'll ever be home
(Switching my lanes like I'm racing a vette)
I don't ever wanna be alone, alone
(I'm on that next, girl of sex
No doubt I'm on top of the world, break your neck)

Oh, and if I try to make it out of this town
(I'm on that next, girl of sex)
No way of knowing If I'll ever be found
(No doubt I'm on top of the world, break your neck)
I don't ever want to be alone, alone
(I'm on that next, girl of sex
No doubt I'm on top of the world, break your neck)
