

Falling Up, Exhibition

They, they come.
The fog and mist the shadow shifts.
A win, within.
The lanterns have been lit.
So slip, the night.
So start erase your name
This place is gone, I know.
It's only flight.

I can feel this run across.
I can feel this sinking in.
Can you feel this moving in?
So, I say.

Why you sleeping?
You know I have escaped
Why you sleeping?
You know I've been erased

Feel, this now.
The healing starts the motion buds.
Your hope, alone.
You're moving past your home.
So lift, your thoughts.
You're letting go of all you used to know,
And now his blood will flow.

I can feel this run across
I can feel this sinking in
Can you feel this moving in?
So I say

Why you sleeping?
You know I have escaped.
Why you sleeping?
You know I've been erased.

I can feel this run across.
I can feel this sinking in.
Can you feel this moving in?
Can you feel this moving in?

It's the only way.
It's the only way.
Feel it run away.
Feel it run away.

Why you sleeping?
You know I have escaped.
Why you sleepin?
You know I've been erased.

Why you sleeping? (I can feel this sinking in)
Why you sleeping? (Can you feel this moving in?)
Why you sleeping? (I can feel this sinking in)
Why you sleeping? (Can you feel this?)
