

Falling Up, Hotel Aquarium

Is this another complication I face?
Here is the mistake coming back to catch me
To you, to you I hold

Now I know that I'm alive
All the loneliness is filled by you inside
And as I finally breathe the air
You opened up my eyes now I'm alive

The lesson in breathing, is never using control
Seconds to misplaced I've never been so unsure
To you, to you I hold

Now I know that I'm alive
All the loneliness is filled by you inside
And as I finally breathe the air
You opened up my eyes now I'm alive

To the heights, to the heights there is hope
It's been waiting all along
To the heights, to the heights there is hope waiting

Now I know that I'm alive
All the loneliness is filled by you inside
And as I finally breathe the air
You opened up my eyes now I'm alive
