

Fame Factory, Backseat Driver

"Backseat Driver"

(Watch your step I'll break your neck)

For a snowball tossed into hell
I really think I'm doing pretty well
You always claimed that I would fail
Your prediction is extremely out of scale

Time to get real, get your hands off my wheel
Please stay seated, buckle up, 'cause here's the deal

No I - don't need a backseat driver - you're fired
So what - if I'm gonna burn some tire
Retire, your times expired

You're so damn predictable
Like what you'd expect from a porn sequel
Confusing your dreams with mine
Seems to be your favorite waste of time

Time to get real, get your hands off my wheel
Please stay seated, buckle up, 'cause here's the deal

No I - don't need a backseat driver - you're fired
So what - if I'm gonna burn some tire
Retire'

Accept that I - don't need a backseat driver - you're fired
So what - if I'm gonna burn some tire
Retire, your times expired

Don't push your luck, I think your presence sucks,
I feel tired.
You're out of line, want let it pass this time,
You're fired.

Time to get real, get your hands off my wheel
Please stay seated, buckle up, 'cause here's the deal

No I - don't need a backseat driver - you're fired
So what - if I'm gonna burn some tire
Retire'

Accept that I - don't need a backseat driver - you're fired
So what - if I'm gonna burn some tire
Retire, your times expired
