

Fame Factory, Miss Julie - Jimmy Jansson

Yeah yeah, oh oh
Here she comes again, miss blond hair sin
You don't wanna
Know where she's been
She's from a place where
All the fire goes
Only she knows how long she can go

(Chorus)
Say hello, say hello
Say hello to miss Julie
She's devastating, manipulating
No good
Say hello, say hello
Miss Julie's got it all
But she's gonna break your heart
Say hello
And walk away

Playing games with her, he knows and dies
But she's truly a devil in disguise
Who got lost on the way to Moulin Rouge
She's gonna teach you love you never knew

(Chorus)
Say hello, say hello
Say hello to miss Julie
She's devastating, manipulating
No good
Say hello, say hello
Miss Julie's got it all
But she's gonna break your heart
Just say hello

Just when you think you said
She will finish again
Miss Julie
Miss Julie

(Chorus)
Say hello, say hello
Say hello to miss Julie
She's devastating, manipulating
No good
Say hello, say hello
Miss Julie's got it all
But she's gonna break your heart
Say hello
And walk away

She's devastating, manipulating
No good
Say hello, say hello
Miss Julie's got it all
But she's gonna break your heart
Say hello
And walk away
Oh, yeah yeah
