

Fame Factory, Thousand Miles - Anders

(wanna be close)

Oh I hear your voice over the telephone
So far away but also close
How this turned out, baby
I should have known
You blinded me, my reality

It's not done easily
Hearing your voice is not enough for me

Can't restrain my love
I wanna be close,
Closer so I can feel every breath you take
But you're out of reach to my heart
You're a thousand miles away
(You're a thousand miles away)
(You're a thousand miles away)

Anything's possible if we believe
That our love is true, that it's me and you
Distance between us, brings a disbelief
What am I to do when I can't touch you?

Don't want it to end,
Meet me again cause you're heavens saint

Can't restrain my love
I wanna be close
Closer so I can feel every breath you take
But you're out of reach to my heart
You're a thousand miles away
You're a thousand miles away
You're a thousand miles away

(Can't restrain my love
I wanna be close
Closer so I can feel)

Can't restrain my love
I wanna be close (Wanna be close)
Closer so I can feel every breath you take
But you're out of reach to my heart
You're a thousand miles away

Can't restrain my love
I wanna be close
Closer so I can feel every breath you take
But you're out of reach to my heart
You're a thousand miles away
