

Familiar 48, Learn To Love Again

Constant yearning, constant pain
For you I hunger, for you I remain
But all I wanted was your time
But what you gave me wasn't enough
Well I can't learn to live this way
If you turn and walk away
I will learn to love again.
I'll do it over and over again
Constant burning, constant strain
It feels like moments last for days
But all I wanted was your time
But what you gave me wasn't enough
Well I can't learn to live this way
If you turn and walk away
I will learn to love again.
I'll do it over and over again
