

Family Guy, Randy Newman's Song

Fat man with and his kids and dog drove in through the morning fog.
Hey there, Rover, come on over...

"Well, it's nice to have a little music while we eat."

Red headed lady, reaching for an apple.
Gonna take a bite -- nope, nope...
She gonna breathe on it first, wipe it on her blouse...
She takes a bite.
Chews it once, twice, three times, four times, stops!
The wife is thinkin', takes a hard long look at Randy...
Five times. Fat old husband walking over.

"Let's get the hell out of here."

Yeah, they're walking down the road...
Left foot, right foot, left foot, right foot, left foot.
