

Fancy, Lady Of Ice

A lady of ice in a desert zone
Where a web of lies has turned to stone.
A lady of ice with a painted smile
I should keep her warm just for a while.
All I want is ecstasy reaching for reality
Love comes and sweeps your past away.
We'll climb invisible mountains
I want you never to be.
All I want is holding you huggin' and protecting you
Turn up the beating of your heart.
It's like a transmutation I want you never to be.
We'll climb the highest mountains
I want you never to be.
