

Fancy, Latin Fire

I'll never be the same
I'll never win a game so easy
I feel I go astray
I feel I lost my way
I'm freezing

Saw her standing on the rail
comin' out a firey hell
Black as coal her latin eyes
her look it took me by surprise.
The ship was really crowded full nobody cares the standing rule I've got to get to her right now
I've got to get to her somehow.
I'll never be the same
I'll never win a game so easy

Down and out
getting cold
warm me in your latin fire Warm me up build me up you're my insatiable desire.
All I want
all I need is your glowing latin fire Every thought of your love drives my pressure high and higher.
I'll never be the same
I'll never' win a game so easy

Oh
baby
I'm in love!
Saw her standing on the rail
comin' out a firey hell
Black as coal her latin eyes
her look it took me by surprise.
I'll never be the same
I'll never win a game so easy

Down and out
getting cold
warm me in your latin fire

Down and out
getting cold
