

Fanmail, Time Will Only Tell

I feel
my time is coming and i'm not so sure if i've already been here too late
the time has passed by and im not so sure what i should fear disappointment takes it toll when you're getting older and everyone's still younger

i feel
my time is coming and not so sure if i've already been here
too late

procrastination takes its toll grabs you by the throat and never lets you go

i feel
too late
the time has passed by and i'm not so sure but time will only tell
