Fanmail, Time Will Only Tell

I feel

my time is coming and i'm not so sure if i've already been here too late

the time has passed by and im not so sure what i should fear disappointment takes it toll when you're getting older and everyone's still younger

my time is coming and not so sure if i've already been here too late

procrastination takes its toll grabs you by the throat and never lets you go

the time has passed by and i'm not so sure but time will only tell
