Freal Luv (4x)

Know no limits, to feel the truth
When the world stops spinnin,
I'll know it's you
Searching all night, like a spotlight
For the one to show
Could it be you, could it be me
Only way to know

I'm all yours, when you really want to take me there Don't let me go no where,
I'd give it all up for you, I swear
Only Freal luv
That love that keeps me shaking
So real there's no mistaking
I'd give it all up to you, I swear
Only Freal luv

Lovin that real luv, something you feel luv
Turning me back to the old me
Ride for my realla, I die for my realla
I give you respect like the OGs
Lockin me down like the police
We ain't never be lonely
Protectin' my love like a goalie,
You'll be the only one next to me right with the homies
We got that empire mind, combine n' steadily rise (That be freal)
Moment of truth of has arrived, trust that forever you ride (That be freal)
You be the bank on my side, you supervise, Lets make a deal,
Let's get it sealed let's make a trill,
Let's rule the world, together freal
