

Far From Finished, One Lifetime

i was look and it was clear to me thats i wasn't home anymore and i was seeing things i'd never seen before turned around and shut the door checking out it's 11 am get in the van we're gonna do it again living my dream, so should you you got one lifetime to do what you do

i'm living free
no worries just memories
i'm driving a long way back to you

set it up we're playing again another chance to make new friends i think i can do this forever pack it up the night is still young we got plenty of time to have some fun everybody's asking where the party's at some will stay in, some will get wrecked if i get out of hand and you know that it's true gonna pick up the pieces and see this through because in this land of temptation 'ya gotta be strong need your friends to help you along

i'm living free
no worries just memories
i'm driving a long way back to you

set it up we're playing again
another chance to make new friends
i think i can do this forever
[x2]

i'm living free
no worries just memories
i'm driving a long way back to you

set it up we're playing again
another chance to make new friends
i think i can do this forever
[x2]