

Far-less, It Gets Complicated

Act like you've got a complicated mind.
It's funny looking in from the outside
And I've been laughing far too long.
You've got to know your limitations.

You're spinning out of control (go on and never let go)
You're spinning out of control
You've got to find another place to hide.
Cause you can't stay here. (I'm not going anywhere.)
In time you'll find when broken hearts unite
Love becomes so clear

If you could see yourself through my eyes,
You might remember all the blurry nights.
Love was a remedy.
For what was killing me.
I questioned everything.
Now it is clear to see.

You're spinning out of control (go on and never let go)
You're spinning out of control
You've got to find another place to hide.
Cause you can't stay here. (I'm not going anywhere.)
In time you'll find when broken hearts unite
Love becomes so clear

It's all so clear.
I'm not going anywhere.

You've got to find another place to hide.
Cause you can't stay here. (I'm not going anywhere.)
In time you'll find when broken hearts unite
Love becomes so clear

You've got to find
Another place to hide
In time you'll find
