

Farmer's Boys, Squit

Maybe I'll make your sun a little brighter
Maybe I'll smile and chase those clouds away
Together you and me could be so right now
I'm pretty sure good times are on their way

Admit I was last from the start
I felt my life was in your hands
We couldn't part
But something stirred deep within
And told me I should be free
Though I've known lots of bad times
These are the worst that I've seen

I've tried but I just can't resist
To relax back in your arms
To touch and kiss
Something tells me I'm wrong
That I've gone over the top
But I've just lost control now
I don't think that I can stop
