

Faron Dawe, Your Days Are Done

You have a pretty smile
That much is true
But you're only in disguise
Cause that's what you do.

Trying to shut my eyes
From the things you do
And you don't realize
That I see right through.

Your deceiving days are done
Been believing that I belong
Your deceiving days are done
I am leaving you all alone.

You're tempting every time
That much is true
But I know you're walking lies
Cause that's what you do.

Think you're so in control?
Well if you only knew
It's time for me to let it out,
It's long overdue.

Your deceiving days are done
Been believing that I belong
Your deceiving days are done
I am leaving you all alone.

By tonight I will be gone.
By tonight you'll be all alone.
By tonight I will be gone.
By tonight'.

Your deceiving days are done
Been believing that I belong
Your deceiving days are done
I am leaving you all alone.
