

Fastball, Wind Me Up

Funny how I couldn't see this is not at all about you, it's about me everything has happened the way it was meant to be here's an opportunity for us to find a way for me to tell you what's been on my mind please forgive me, I don't mean to seem unkind but you wind me up, so wind me up again I feel the tug of war, it only seems to happen when we open love's door everything is back to the way it was before can you tell the difference or is it the same does it really count if we don't give it a name please forgive me, I don't mean to seem insane but you wind me up, better wind me up again funny, but I thought you knew all those things you think about I think about too gotta separate the unreal from what is true here's an opportunity for us to find
a way for me to tell you what's been on my mind
but you wind me up, so wind me up again

Quand le vin est tire, il faut le boire Oh non, ce n'est pas grand chose Ce n'est qu'un emploi provisoire Oui, je comprends
Il a nie mordicus
Il trompe sa femme
C'est du toc
C'était tres visible
Mais j'ai entendu
J'etais terriblement genee C'est un cercle vicieux Il a pris la poudre d'escampette J'ai un maillot de bain a une piece...
